

STATE OF CALIFORNIA
California Law Revision Commission

TENTATIVE RECOMMENDATION

relating to

PUBLIC GUARDIAN AND PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR

September 1986

This tentative recommendation is being distributed so that interested persons will be advised of the Commission's tentative conclusions and can make their views known to the Commission. Any comments sent to the Commission will be considered when the Commission determines what recommendation it will make to the Legislature on this subject. It is just as important to advise the Commission that you approve the tentative recommendation as it is to advise the Commission that you believe revisions should be made in the tentative recommendation.

COMMENTS ON THIS TENTATIVE RECOMMENDATION SHOULD BE SENT TO THE COMMISSION NOT LATER THAN NOVEMBER 15, 1986.

The Commission often substantially revises tentative recommendations as a result of the comments it receives. Hence, this tentative recommendation is not necessarily the recommendation the Commission will submit to the Legislature.

LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL

The California Law Revision Commission is now devoting its time and resources almost exclusively to the study of probate law and procedure. The Commission's ultimate objective is enactment of a new Estate and Trust Code to replace the Probate Code.

This tentative recommendation sets forth the Commission's tentative conclusions concerning public guardians and public administrators (existing Welfare and Institutions Code Sections 8000-8015 and Probate Code Sections 1140-1155).

The preliminary portion of the tentative recommendation indicates the principal substantive revisions the proposed legislation would make in existing law.

The proposed legislation is drafted as a part of the new code. In some cases, you will find a reference to other portions of the new code that are still being prepared and are not yet available.

A Comment follows each section of the proposed legislation. The Comment gives the source of the section and indicates the nature of the changes the section would make in existing law.

Comments showing the disposition of each section of existing law that would be replaced by the proposed legislation can be found at the end of the tentative recommendation.

TENTATIVE RECOMMENDATION RELATING TO
PUBLIC GUARDIAN AND PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR

PUBLIC GUARDIAN

The new code relocates the public guardian statute from the Welfare and Institutions Code¹ to the Guardianship and Conservatorship Law. At the same time, the new code makes a few significant substantive changes in the law.

Public guardian's bond. The official bond of the public guardian and the liability of the county for the public guardian stand in place of the ordinary bond of a guardian or conservator. Since the public guardian's bond and liability are for the benefit and protection of the ward or conservatee and persons interested in the estate of the ward or conservatee, it is proper that these persons, rather than the public, should bear the cost.² The new code allows as a claim against the estate of the ward or conservatee a share of the cost of the public guardian's bond.³ This amount is remitted to the county treasury to offset the public expenditure for the official bond and other public liability of the county.

1. Welf. & Inst. C. §§ 8000-8015.

2. A guardian or conservator is generally allowed the amount of reasonable expenses incurred in performance of the duties, including the cost of any surety bond given. Prob. Code § 2623(a).

3. The statutory share is $25 plus ¼% of the amount of an estate greater than $10,000. This amount is subject to revision, depending ultimately on the small estate non-appraisal provisions ultimately adopted. See discussion of "Appraisal of estate," below.

Court ordered public guardianship or conservatorship. If the court orders the guardianship or conservatorship of any person or estate into the public guardian's hands, existing law provides in one place that the public guardian "may act" as guardian or conservator and in another that the public guardian "shall" procure letters of guardianship or conservatorship.⁴ As a consequence, whether the public guardian must accept a court referral is not clear. The new code makes clear the public guardian must accept a court-referred guardianship or conservatorship. However, the court may not order the referral except upon 15 days' notice to the public guardian, a court hearing, and a determination that there is no other person qualified and willing to act and that the public guardianship or conservatorship is necessary. This will ensure that persons and property in need of protection will receive it, and that the public guardian will be required to act only in appropriate cases.

Jurisdiction of public guardian. Existing law provides that the public guardian may act with respect to persons and property "in the county."⁵ However, a person domiciled in the county may require protection when temporarily outside the county (including institutionalization outside the county), or the person's property requiring protection may be situated outside the county. Jurisdiction should be based on domicile, regardless of the temporary location of the person or property. The new code implements this concept.

4. Welf. & Inst. Code § 8006.

5. Welf. & Inst. Code § 8006.

Taking possession or control of property. Whether or not the public guardian is ultimately appointed guardian or conservator, the public guardian may take immediate possession or control of property in need of protection because it is subject to waste, lack of care, or loss. The new code extends this authority to property that is subject to misappropriation as well.

Existing law sets a statutory fee for the services of the public guardian in taking charge of the ward's or conservatee's property. The statutory fee is subject to a $25 minimum and a $500 maximum.⁶ These limits are arbitrary, and bear no reasonable relation to the actual cost to the public guardian of providing services. The proposed law eliminates the statutory maximum and minimum fees, leaving the public guardian simply with a reasonable fee for services.

Employment of attorneys. Existing law enables the public guardian to employ private attorneys if necessary, provided the cost can be defrayed out of estate funds.⁷ The new code broadens this authority even where estate funds are insufficient by enabling the public guardian to employ private attorneys where satisfactory pro bono or contingency fee arrangements can be made. This will enable the public guardian to obtain adequate legal representation for the ward's or conservatee's estate without cost to the public or the estate.

6. Welf. & Inst. Code § 8006.5.

7. Welf. & Inst. Code § 8010.

Appraisal of estate. Ordinarily a guardianship or conservatorship estate must be appraised.⁸ The appraisal requirement is a substantial and unnecessary burden in the case of small estates⁹ and estates where the assets will not be sold. The Commission has under review proposals to eliminate appraisals or to substitute conservator for probate referee appraisal in appropriate cases, such as small estates, estates that will not be sold, and estates eligible for Social Security Supplemental Income Benefits.¹⁰ The object of this review is to simplify administration in small estates and to prevent the ward's or conservatee's assets from being consumed in administrative expenses. The new provisions would apply to estates administered by private conservators as well as the public guardian. The Commission solicits comments on these concepts.

Disposition of assets on death of ward or conservatee. On the death of the ward or conservatee the public administrator may pay expenses of last illness and funeral expenses, and may liquidate an estate worth less than $20,000 by summary court proceedings if existing liquid assets are insufficient for payment.¹¹ This is a useful procedure, and the new code expands it to permit liquidation and payment of other reasonable guardian or conservator charges as well, including unpaid court approved attorney's fees.¹² However, because of the expansion and because of the summary nature of the court proceedings, the new code restricts the liquidation procedure to the smallest estates--those worth less than $5,000.

8. Prob. Code § 2610.

9. An estate handled by the public guardian need not be appraised if worth fifty dollars or less. Welf. & Inst. Code § 8011.

10. The current SSSI asset limit is $1,600.

11. Welf. & Inst. Code § 8012.

12. The new code makes this revision in Section 2631, which is applicable to any guardian or conservator and is not limited to the public guardian.

PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR

The provisions of existing law governing public administrators are generally continued in the new code without substantive change, or with only minor changes that are noted in the Comments to the new code and to the repealed provisions of existing law. There are a number of more significant changes, however, that are noteworthy.

Property subject to loss, injury, waste, or misappropriation. A public administrator must take charge of a decedent's property either (1) upon court order or (2) if there is no personal representative and the property is subject to loss, injury, or waste.¹³ The new code extends this requirement to property that is subject to misappropriation as well. However, the public administrator is given express immunity with respect to property the public administrator is unable to obtain control of.

In carrying out this responsibility, the public administrator may make a search for other property, a will, and burial instructions, including a search of the decedent's safe deposit box, but only if there are reasonable grounds to believe that the public administrator may be appointed personal representative.¹⁴ This limitation is unduly restrictive, since there may be an immediate need for action regardless of the likelihood the public administrator will ultimately be the personal representative. The new code deletes the likelihood of appointment requirement. The new code also adds a requirement that if the search reveals additional property of the decedent that is subject to loss, injury, or waste, the person in possession must surrender the property to the public administrator.

13. Prob. Code § 1140.

14. Prob. Code § 1141.

Existing law sets a statutory fee for the services of a public administrator in searching for and taking charge of the decedent's property that is subject to loss, injury, or waste. The statutory fee is subject to a $25 minimum and a $500 maximum.¹⁵ These limits are arbitrary, and bear no reasonable relation to the actual cost to the public administrator of providing the services. The new code eliminates the statutory maximum and minimum fees, leaving the public administrator simply with a reasonable fee for services.

Public administrator's bond. The official bond of the public administrator and the liability of the county for the public administrator stand in place of the ordinary bond of a personal representative. Since the public administrator's bond and liability are for the benefit and protection of persons interested in the estates administered by the public administrator, it is proper that these beneficiaries, rather than the public, should bear the cost. The new code allows as a charge against every estate administered by the public administrator a share of the cost of the public administrator's bond.¹⁶ This amount is remitted to the county treasury to offset the public expenditure for the official bond and other public liability of the county.

15. Prob. Code § 1144.5.

16. The statutory share is $25 for an estate of $10,000 or less and ¼% of the amount of an estate greater than $10,000. This amount is subject to revision, depending ultimately on the small estate non-appraisal provisions ultimately adopted. See Tentative Recommendation relating to Inventory and Appraisal (to be published).

Summary proceedings. Most estates handled by the public administrator are small estates that are uneconomical to administer.¹⁷ Existing law seeks to cure this problem by providing summary proceedings for use by the public administrator in small estates.¹⁸ The existing definition of a small estate, however, is unrealistically low--$3,000 for independent action by the public administrator, and $20,000 for action with court authorization. The new code increases these amounts to allow independent action by the public administrator if the estate is less than $10,000, or upon court authorization if the estate is less than $60,000. These amounts correspond to the amounts that define a small estate under general Probate Code provisions enabling collection and transfer of small estates without administration.¹⁹ Increasing the amounts should place the operation of the public administrator's office on a more sound economic basis.

In conducting summary administration proceedings, the public administrator may liquidate personal property assets but not real property assets.²⁰ This limitation unduly impairs the utility of the summary proceedings. The new code provides that, so long as the total estate is small, the public administrator may sell real property that is part of the estate. The sale should be subject to court confirmation, however, just as sales under ordinary estate administration.

17. For example, James R. Scannell, Public Administrator for the City and County of San Francisco, informs the Law Revision Commission that 70% of the estates handled by his office are less than $10,000 in value and 88% are less than $50,000 in value. See Minutes of Meeting of California Law Revision Commission (March 13-14, 1986) at 28.

18. Prob. Code § 1143.

19. Prob. Code § 13000 et seq.

20. Prob. Code §§ 1143-1144.

Because no notice to creditors is given under summary proceedings, the new code includes two protections for creditors not found under existing law. First, the new code requires payment of claims made any time before distribution of the decedent's property is made, as opposed to the four-month claim period applicable in ordinary administration proceedings in which creditors receive published notice. To avoid precipitate distributions, the new code prohibits distribution until four months after commencement of summary disposition proceedings. Second, the new code imposes liability on recipients of property distributed pursuant to summary proceedings for unpaid creditor claims. This is analogous to personal liability imposed on recipients of property that passes without probate administration.²¹

Existing law provides no limit to the amount of time a public administrator must preserve files of summary disposition cases. The new code simplifies the record-keeping system by requiring the public administrator to file with the court a permanent statement of the decedent's estate and receipts for distributions in the case of an estate over $10,000. Thereafter, the public administrator must preserve in the office of the public administrator a temporary file of all receipts and records of expenditures for a period of two years, after which the file may be destroyed.

The minimum fee of the public administrator for summary administration is $250.²² This fee is unrealistically low under modern conditions, and the new code increases the minimum fee to $350.

21. See, e.g., Prob. Code § 13000 et seq.

22. Prob. Code §§ 1143-1144; 43 Ops. Cal. Atty. Gen. 192 (4-22-64).

Existing law provides that where the public administrator uses summary disposition proceedings, unclaimed property in estates under $3,000 is paid to the county²³ but unclaimed property in estates under $20,000 is distributed to the state.²⁴ The Law Revision Commission recommends that all unclaimed summary disposition funds be paid to the county. Typically the small estates summarily disposed of by the public administrator are the estates of elders living alone without family support who receive greater than usual county care and service during their lifetimes.²⁵ For this reason it is appropriate that unclaimed property is paid to the county where the decedent resided.

23. Prob. Code § 1143(b).

24. Prob. Code § 1144.

25. Such care and service may include supplementation of income through geriatric programs such as day care centers, low cost public transportation, food and health centers, and replacement of services eliminated from the Medi-Cal program. See letter from Dianne Feinstein, Mayor of San Francisco, to California Law Revision Commission (May 21, 1986) (letter on file in Commission office).

CONFORMING CHANGES

DIVISION 4. GUARDIANSHIP, CONSERVATORSHIP, AND OTHER
PROTECTIVE PROCEEDINGS

PART 5. PUBLIC GUARDIAN

CHAPTER 1. OFFICE OF PUBLIC GUARDIAN

§ 2900. Creation of office

2900. (a) In any county the board of supervisors may by ordinance create the office of public guardian and such subordinate positions as may be necessary and fix compensation therefor.

(b) The board of supervisors may appoint a public guardian to fill the office and provide for appointment to the subordinate positions.

Comment. Section 2900 restates former Welfare and Institutions Code Section 8000 without substantive change.

§ 2901. Termination of office

2901. The board of supervisors may by ordinance terminate the office of public guardian.

Comment. Section 2901 restates former Welfare and Institutions Code Section 8002 without substantive change.

§ 2902. Public administrator as public guardian

2902. The board of supervisors may by ordinance designate that the public administrator is ex officio public guardian.

Comment. Section 2902 restates former Welfare and Institutions Code Section 8001 without substantive change.

§ 2903. Termination of public administrator as public guardian

2903. If the public administrator has been designated ex officio public guardian, the board of supervisors may by ordinance terminate the designation and appoint another public guardian and all authority vests in the successor.

Comment. Section 2903 restates former Welfare and Institutions Code Section 8003 without substantive change.

§ 2904. Termination of public guardian and appointment of public administrator

2904. If the board of supervisors has not designated the public administrator as ex officio public guardian, but has appointed another public guardian, it may terminate the appointment and may by ordinance designate that the public administrator is ex officio public guardian and all authority vests in the successor.

Comment. Section 2904 restates former Welfare and Institutions Code Section 8004 without substantive change.

§ 2905. Termination of authority of public guardian

2905. The authority of the public guardian or ex officio public guardian ceases upon the termination of his or her tenure in office as public guardian or ex officio public guardian and his or her authority vests in his or her successor. If letters have been issued to "the public guardian" of the county, the letters are sufficient to authorize action by the successor and new letters need not be issued.

Comment. The first sentence of Section 2905 restates former Welfare and Institutions Code Section 8005 without substantive change. The second sentence is new; it recognizes that letters may be issued to the office instead of the individual (Section 2923) pursuant to existing practice in some counties.

§ 2906. Official bond

2906. The public guardian shall give an official bond in an amount fixed, from time to time, by the board of supervisors. The bond shall be for the joint benefit of the guardianship or conservatorship estates and the county. The public guardian may not be required to give a bond in an individual estate.

Comment. Section 2906 restates former Welfare and Institutions Code Section 8008 without substantive change. See also Section 2923 (letters, oath, and bond). The public guardian is allowed a share of the cost of the bond as an expense of administration. Section 2943 (expenses of public guardian).

§ 2907. Advance on expenses of public guardian

2907. (a) Necessary expenses of the public guardian in the conduct of any guardianship or any conservatorship estate may be advanced by the county. If so ordered by the board of supervisors, such expenses are a county charge, but the county shall be reimbursed therefor out of funds or property of the estate by the public guardian.

(b) As a means of advancing necessary expenses of a public guardian, the county board of supervisors may establish a revolving fund to be used by the public guardian. The revolving fund shall be established pursuant to Article 7 (commencing with Section 29460) of Chapter 2 of Division 3 of Title 3 of the Government Code.

Comment. Section 2907 restates former Welfare and Institutions Code Section 8015 without substantive change. To the extent funds of the estate are insufficient for reimbursement under subdivision (a), the expenses advanced remain a county charge.

CHAPTER 2. APPOINTMENT OF PUBLIC GUARDIAN

§ 2920. Taking possession or control of property

2920. (a) The public guardian may take possession or control of property of persons domiciled in the county referred to the public guardian for guardianship or conservatorship if the property is subject to loss, injury, waste, or misappropriation.

(b) A public guardian who takes possession or control of property pursuant to this section is entitled to reasonable costs incurred for the protection of the property, together with a reasonable fee for services, in case of the subsequent appointment of another person as guardian or conservator of the estate. The costs and fee are a proper and legal charge against the estate of the ward or conservatee.

Comment. Subdivision (a) of Section 2920 restates the fifth sentence of former Welfare and Institutions Code Section 8006, with the addition of misappropriation as a ground for taking possession or control. Subdivision (b) restates former Welfare and Institutions Code Section 8006.5, eliminating the maximum and minimum fees.

§ 2921. Application for appointment

2921. If any person domiciled in the county requires a guardian or conservator and there is no other person qualified and willing to act as guardian or conservator:

(a) The public guardian may apply for appointment as guardian or conservator of the person and estate or person or estate.

(b) The public guardian shall apply for appointment as guardian or conservator of the person and estate or person or estate if the court so orders after a hearing on 15 days' notice to the public guardian and a determination that the appointment is necessary.

Comment. Section 2921 supersedes the first, second, and a portion of the third sentences of former Welfare and Institutions Code Section 8006. Section 2921 applies even though a person may be institutionalized in a facility in another county if the person is domiciled in the county of the public guardian.

2922. An application of the public guardian for guardianship or conservatorship of the person and estate or person or estate of a person who is under the jurisdiction of the State Department of Mental Health or the State Department of Developmental Services may not be granted without the written consent of the department having jurisdiction of the person.

Comment. Section 2922 restates former Welfare and Institutions Code Section 8007 without substantive change.

§ 2923. Letters, oath, and bond

2923. If the public guardian is appointed as guardian or conservator:

(a) Letters of guardianship or conservatorship shall be issued in the same manner and by the same proceedings as letters of guardianship or conservatorship are issued to other persons. Letters may be issued to "the public guardian" of the county without naming the public guardian.

(b) The official bond and oath of the public guardian are in lieu of the guardian or conservator's bond and oath on the grant of letters of temporary guardianship, letters of guardianship, letters of temporary conservatorship, or letters of conservatorship.

Comment. Section 2923 restates the third and fourth sentences of former Welfare and Institutions Code Section 8006 with the addition of authority to issue letters to "the public guardian." Letters issued in this form are sufficient to enable a successor public guardian to act without issuance of new letters. Section 2905 (termination of authority of public guardian). The public guardian is allowed a share of the cost of the bond as an expense of administration. Section 2943 (expenses of public guardian). See also Section 2906 (official bond).

CHAPTER 3. ADMINISTRATION BY PUBLIC GUARDIAN

§ 2940. Deposit of funds

2940. All funds coming into the custody of the public guardian shall be deposited or invested in the same manner and subject to the same terms and conditions as deposit or investment of money of an estate by the public administrator pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 7660) of Chapter 7 of Division 7.

Comment. Section 2940 supersedes former Welfare and Institutions Code Section 8009. It cross-refers to comparable provisions of the public administrator statute.

§ 2941. Employment of attorneys

2941. The public guardian may, if necessary and in the public guardian's discretion, employ private attorneys where the cost of employment can be defrayed out of estate funds or where satisfactory pro bono or contingency fee arrangements can be made.

Comment. Section 2941 restates former Welfare and Institutions Code Section 8010 with the addition of reference to satisfactory pro bono or contingency fee arrangements.

§ 2942. Disposition of property on death of ward or conservatee

2942. (a) Upon the death of the ward or conservatee the public guardian may pay from assets of the ward or conservatee that are in the possession or control of the public guardian the unpaid expenses and charges of the guardianship or conservatorship in the manner and to the extent provided in Section 2631.

(b) If payment of expenses and charges pursuant to subdivision (a) cannot be made in full and the total market value of the remaining estate of the decedent does not exceed $5,000, the public guardian may petition the court for an order permitting the public guardian to liquidate the decedent's estate. The public guardian may petition even though there is a will of the decedent in existence if the will does not appoint an executor or if the named executor refuses to act. No notice of the petition need be given. If the order is granted, the public guardian may sell personal property of the decedent, withdraw money of the decedent in an account in a financial institution, and collect a debt, claim, or insurance proceeds owed to the decedent or the decedent's estate, and a person having possession or control shall pay or deliver the money or property to the public guardian. After the payment of any remaining amounts due, the public guardian may transfer any remaining assets pursuant to Section 2631.

Comment. Section 2942 restates former Welfare and Institutions Code Section 8012; the section expands the expenses and charges that may be covered but limits estates that may be liquidated to $5,000 or less. If the estate exceeds $5,000 but is less than $10,000, a public administrator appointed personal representative may summarily dispose of the estate without court authorization. § 2943. Expenses of public guardian

2943. The public guardian has a claim against the estate of the ward or conservatee for all of the following:

(a) Reasonable expenses incurred in the execution of the guardianship or conservatorship.

(b) Compensation for services of the public guardian and the attorney of the public guardian, and for the filing and processing services of the county clerk, in the amount the court determines is just and reasonable.

(c) A share of the cost of the public guardian's official bond, in the amount of twenty-five dollars ($25) plus one-fourth of one percent of the amount of an estate greater than ten thousand dollars ($10,000). The amount charged shall be deposited in the county treasury.

Comment. Subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 2943 restate former Welfare and Institutions Code Section 8013 without substantive change. Subdivision (c) is new; it is comparable to Section 7641(c) (public administrator).

PART 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

CHAPTER 7. PUBLIC ADMINISTRATORS

Article 1. General Provisions

§ 7601. Assistant or deputy public administrator

7601. An assistant or deputy public administrator or other subordinate officer may be appointed to act and has the powers and may perform the duties of the office of the public administrator to the extent provided in Article 7 (commencing with Section 1190) of Chapter 1 of Division 4 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

Comment. Section 7601 replaces former Probate Code Section 1142.5 with a reference to the general Government Code provisions governing assistants and deputies.

Article 2. Taking Possession or Control of Property
Subject to Loss, Injury, Waste, or Misappropriation

§ 7620. Report of public officer or employee

7620. A public officer or employee shall inform the public administrator of property of a decedent known to the officer or employee to be subject to loss, injury, waste, or misappropriation that ought to be in the possession or control of the public administrator.

Comment. Section 7620 restates former Probate Code Section 1146 without substantive change.

§ 7621. Authority of public administrator

7621. (a) If no personal representative has been appointed, the public administrator of a county shall take prompt possession or control of property of a decedent in the county that is liable to loss, injury, waste, or misappropriation, or that the court orders into the possession or control of the public administrator after notice to the public administrator.

(b) If property described in subdivision (a) is beyond the control of the public administrator, the public administrator is not liable for failing to take possession or control of the property.

Comment. Section 7621 restates the first sentence of former Probate Code Section 1140(a), with the addition of misappropriation as a ground for taking possession or control and with the addition of an express immunity in the case of property that is beyond the control of the public administrator. The public administrator may also be appointed special administrator for the property. Sections 8540-8541 (special administrators).

§ 7622. Search for property, will, and instructions for disposition of remains

7622. (a) A public administrator who is authorized to take possession or control of property of a decedent pursuant to this article may make an immediate search for other property, a will, and instructions for disposition of the decedent's remains.

(b) If a will is found, the public administrator or custodian of the will shall deliver the will as provided in Section 8200.

(c) If instructions for disposition of the decedent's remains are found, the public administrator shall promptly deliver the instructions to the person upon whom the right to control disposition of the decedent's remains devolves as provided in Section 7100 of the Health and Safety Code.

Comment. Section 7622 restates the first portion of subdivision (a) and subdivision (b) of former Probate Code Section 1141 but eliminates the requirement that there be reasonable grounds to believe that the public administrator may be appointed personal representative.

§ 7623. Providing information and access

7623. (a) A public administrator who is authorized to take possession or control of property of a decedent pursuant to this article may make a written statement of this fact. A financial institution or other person shall, without the necessity of inquiring into the truth of the written statement and without court order or letters being issued:

(1) Provide the public administrator information concerning property held in the sole name of the decedent.

(2) Grant the public administrator access to a safe deposit box rented in the sole name of the decedent for the purpose of inspection and removal of any will or instructions for disposition of the decedent's remains. Costs and expenses incurred in drilling or forcing a safe deposit box shall be borne by the estate of the decedent.

(3) Surrender to the public administrator property of the decedent that is subject to loss, injury, waste, or misappropriation.

(b) Receipt of the written statement provided by this section:

(1) Constitutes sufficient acquittance for providing information or granting access to the safe deposit box, for removal of the decedent's will and instructions for disposition of the decedent's remains, and for surrendering property of the decedent.

(2) Fully discharges the financial institution or other person from any liability for granting access or for any act or omission of the public administrator with respect to the safe deposit box.

Comment. Section 7623 restates the last portion of subdivision (a) and subdivision (c) of former Probate Code Section 1141 with the elimination of the requirement that there be reasonable grounds to believe the public administrator may be appointed personal representative and with the addition of subdivision (a)(3).

Article 3. Appointment as Personal Representative

§ 7640. Authority of public administrator

7640. The public administrator of the county in which the estate of a decedent may be administered shall promptly:

(a) Petition for appointment as personal representative of the estate if the decedent has no known beneficiaries.

(b) Petition for appointment as personal representative of any other estate the public administrator deems proper.

(c) Accept appointment as personal representative of an estate when so ordered by the court whether or not upon petition of the public administrator, after notice to the public administrator as provided in Section 7641.

Comment. Subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 7640 restate the second sentence of former Probate Code Section 1140(a) without substantive change. Subdivision (c) is new. See also Sections 7050-7051 (jurisdiction and venue of probate proceedings) and 8461 (priority for appointment).

§ 7641. Appointment of public administrator

7641. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, appointment of the public administrator as personal representative shall be made, and letters issued, in the same manner and pursuant to the same procedure as for appointment of and issuance of letters to personal representatives generally.

(b) Appointment of the public administrator may be made on the court's own motion, after notice to the public administrator.

(c) Letters may be issued to "the public administrator" of the county without naming the public administrator.

(d) The public administrator's oath and official bond are in lieu of the personal representative's oath and bond. Every estate administered under this chapter shall be charged with a share of the cost of the public administrator's official bond, in the amount of twenty-five dollars ($25) plus one-fourth of one percent of the amount of an estate greater than ten thousand dollars ($10,000). The amount charged is an expense of administration and that amount shall be deposited in the county treasury.

Comment. Section 7641 restates former Probate Code Section 1140(b), with the addition of subdivisions (b) and (c) and the provision of subdivision (d) allowing the county to recoup a share of the cost of the public administrator's official bond.

Letters issued to "the public administrator" under subdivision (c) are sufficient to enable a successor public administrator to act without issuance of new letters. Section 7645 (expiration of term of office).

The amount allowed under subdivision (d) is half the amount allowed for the bond of a personal representative generally under former Probate Code Section 541.5. Removal of the public administrator is subject to the same procedures as removal of administrators generally, including removal at the request of a person having a higher priority for appointment. (b) If the compensation of the public administrator is paid by salary and not by fees, the authority of the public administrator ceases upon termination of his or her tenure in the office of public administrator, and his or her authority vests in the successor in the office of public administrator. If letters have been issued to "the public administrator" of the county, the letters are sufficient to authorize action by the successor and new letters need not be issued.

(1) The deposit belongs to the estate of a known decedent for which a personal representative has never been appointed.

(2) The deposit belongs to the estate of a known decedent for which a personal representative has been appointed but no order of distribution has been made due to the absence of interested persons or the failure of interested persons diligently to protect their interests by taking reasonable steps for the purpose of securing a distribution of the estate.

(b) The State Controller may, at any time after the expiration of the five-year period, file a petition with the court setting forth the fact that the money has remained on deposit in a financial institution under the circumstances described in subdivision (a) for the five-year period, and requesting an order declaring that the money is presumptively abandoned and directing the holder of the money to pay the money to the State Treasurer.

(c) Upon presentation of a certified copy of a court order made pursuant to subdivision (b), the financial institution shall forthwith transmit the money to the State Treasurer for deposit in the State Treasury. The deposit shall be made as provided in Section 1310 of the Code of Civil Procedure. All money deposited in the State Treasury under the provisions of this section shall be deemed to be deposited in the State Treasury under the provisions of Article 1 (commencing with Section 1440) of Chapter 6 of Title 10 of Part 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure. Article 5. Summary Disposition of Small Estates

§ 7680. Summary disposition authorized

7680. (a) If a public administrator takes possession or control of, or is appointed personal representative of, an estate pursuant to this chapter, the public administrator may summarily dispose of the estate in the manner provided in this article in either of the following circumstances:

(1) The total value of the estate of the decedent does not exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000). The authority provided by this paragraph may be exercised without court authorization.

(2) The total value of the estate of the decedent does not exceed the amount prescribed in Section 13100. The authority provided by this paragraph may be exercised only upon order of the court. The order may be made upon ex parte application. The fee to be allowed to the clerk for the filing of the application shall be set by the court.

(b) Summary disposition may be made whether or not there is a will of the decedent in existence, if the will does not name an executor or if the named executor refuses to act.

(c) Nothing in this article precludes the public administrator from filing a petition with the court pursuant to any other provision of this division.

Comment. Subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 7680 supersede portions of former Probate Code Section 1143(a) and (b), increasing the summary disposition amounts from $3,000 to $10,000 and from $20,000 to the amount prescribed in Section 13100 (affidavit procedure for collection or transfer of personal property). Subdivision (c) is new; petitions pursuant to other provisions of this division include petitions for interpretation of a will or determination of persons entitled to distribution. See, e.g., Sections (petition for instructions); 11700-11705 (determination of persons entitled to distribution). Section 7680 is not limited to summary disposition of personal property but may include real property of small value as well.

(b) Expenses of the decedent's last illness and of disposition of the remains of the decedent.

(c) Claims presented to the public administrator before distribution of the decedent's property pursuant to Section 7683. Claims shall be paid in the order prescribed in Section 11401 (order of payment).

Comment. Section 7682 restates the second sentence of former Probate Code Section 1143(a) and a portion of former Probate Code Section 1143(b), with the addition of specific references to fees and costs of administration. Because no notice to creditors is given pursuant to this article, the time for making claims is extended to the time of distribution of the decedent's property, and recipients of the property remain liable for creditor claims. COMMENTS TO REPEALED SECTIONS

CHAPTER 20. PUBLIC ADMINISTRATORS

Probate Code § 1140 (repealed)

Comment. The first sentence of subdivision (a) of former Section 1140 is restated in Estate and Trust Code Section 7621 (authority of public administrator), with the addition of misappropriation as a ground for taking possession or control of property. The court may also appoint the public administrator as special administrator. Estate and Trust Code Section 8541 (procedure for appointment). The second sentence of subdivision (a) is restated in Estate and Trust Code Section 7640 (authority of public administrator).

Subdivision (b) is restated without substantive change in Estate and Trust Code Section 7641 (appointment of public administrator), with the addition of provisions for appointment of a public administrator on the court's own motion and for county recoupment from the estate of a share of the cost of the public administrator's bond.

Probate Code § 1140.5 (repealed)

Comment. Former Section 1140.5 is omitted. The county may not return alien indigents to their native land.

Probate Code § 1141 (repealed)

Comment. Former Section 1141 is restated without substantive change in Estate and Trust Code Sections 7622 (search for property, will, and instructions for disposition of remains) and 7623 (providing information and access), with the elimination of the requirement that there be reasonable grounds to believe the public administrator may be appointed personal representative.

Probate Code § 1142 (repealed)

Comment. Former Section 1142 is restated without substantive change in Estate and Trust Code Section 7642 (general rules governing administration of estates apply).

Probate Code § 1142.3 (repealed)

Comment. Former Section 1142.3 is restated without substantive change in Estate and Trust Code Section 7644 (additional compensation).

Probate Code § 1142.5 (repealed)

Comment. Former Section 1142.5 is superseded by Estate and Trust Code Section 7601 (assistant or deputy public administrator).

Probate Code § 1143 (repealed)

Comment. Former Section 1143 is superseded by Estate and Trust Code Sections 7680-7686 (summary disposition of small estates). The new provisions increase the summary disposition amounts from $3,000 to $10,000 and from $20,000 to the amount prescribed in Estate and Trust Code Section 13100, and are not limited to personal property.

Probate Code § 1144 (repealed)

Comment. Former Section 1144 is superseded by Estate and Trust Code Sections 7680-7686 (summary disposition of small estates); escheat to the state is replaced by payment to the county.

Probate Code § 1144.5 (repealed)

Comment. Former Section 1144.5 is restated in Estate and Trust Code Section 7624 (costs and fees for taking charge of property), with the elimination of the maximum and minimum fees.

Probate Code § 1145 (repealed)

Comment. Former Section 1145 is superseded by Estate and Trust Code Section 7620 (report of public officer or employee).

Probate Code § 1146 (repealed)

Comment. Former Section 1146 is restated without substantive change in Estate and Trust Code Section 7620 (report of public officer or employee).

Probate Code § 1147 (repealed)

Comment. The first sentence of the first paragraph of former Section 1147 is restated without substantive change in Estate and Trust Code Section 7661 (deposit by public administrator). The second sentence is restated without substantive change in Estate and Trust Code Section 7662 (withdrawal of amounts deposited). The second paragraph is restated in Estate and Trust Code Section 7663 (interest on money deposited).

Probate Code § 1147.5 (repealed)

Comment. Former Section 1147.5 is restated without substantive change in Estate and Trust Code Section 7665 (deposit unclaimed in financial institution).

Probate Code § 1148 (repealed)

Comment. Former Section 1148 is restated without substantive change in Estate and Trust Code Section 7664 (deposit with county treasurer).

Probate Code § 1149 (repealed)

Comment. Former Section 1149 is omitted. Payment of fees is controlled by general rules governing payment of the expenses of administration. See, e.g., Estate and Trust Code Sections 7642 (general rules governing administration of estates apply) and 7682 (payment of demands).

Probate Code § 1150 (repealed)

Comment. Former Section 1150 is omitted. General rules governing fiduciary obligations of the personal representative apply to the public administrator. Government Code Section 27443 provides an additional sanction.

Probate Code § 1152 (repealed)

Comment. Former Section 1152 is restated without substantive change in Estate and Trust Code Section 7645 (expiration of term of office).

Probate Code § 1154 (repealed)

Comment. Former Section 1154 is restated in Estate and Trust Code Section 7643 (payment of unclaimed funds), which allows 60 days instead of 10 days for making payment.

Probate Code § 1155 (repealed)

Comment. Former Section 1155 is omitted. Special sanctions are unnecessary in view of applicable general sanctions.

CONFORMING CHANGES

Government Code § 29616 (repealed)

SEC. . Section 29616 of the Government Code is repealed.

~~29616. The publication of the semiannual report by the public administrator is a county charge.~~

Comment. The semiannual report to which former Section 29616 referred was repealed in 1981. See former Probate Code § 1153.

Military & Veterans Code § 1035.05

SEC. . Section 1035.05 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

1035.05. [set out existing text without change]

(c) For the purpose of application to this section of the provisions of the Estate and Trust Code governing distribution of property, the home shall be deemed to be a beneficiary of the decedent.

Comment. Section 1035.05 is amended to make clear that the Veterans' Home of California is considered a "beneficiary" within the meaning of the Estate and Trust Code provisions governing distribution, for proper interpretation of the law. Thus, for example, under Estate and Trust Code Section 7683 (distribution of property by public administrator), distribution must be made to the Veterans' Home if appropriate before funds may be delivered to the county treasurer.

Probate Code § 2631 (amended)

2631. (a) Upon the death of the ward or conservatee, the guardian or conservator may contract for and pay a reasonable sum for the expenses of the last illness and the funeral disposition of the remains of the deceased ward or conservatee, and for other reasonable guardian or conservator charges, including unpaid court approved attorney's fees, or may pay the unpaid expenses ~~of such last illness and funeral,~~ in full or in part, to the extent reasonable, from any assets of the deceased ward or conservatee, other than real property or any interest therein, which are under the control of the guardian or conservator.

(b) When a claim for such expenses is presented to the guardian or conservator, the guardian or conservator shall endorse thereon an allowance or rejection, with the date thereof. If the claim is allowed, it shall be presented to the court and the court shall in like manner endorse thereon an allowance or rejection. If the claim is approved by the court, the claim shall be filed with the clerk within 30 days thereafter.

(c) After payment of such expenses, the guardian or conservator may transfer any remaining assets in accordance with and subject to the provisions of ~~Section-630~~ Part 1 (commencing with Section 13000) of Division 8. The value of the property of the deceased ward or conservatee, for the purpose of ascertaining the right to transfer under ~~Section-630~~ Part 1 (commencing with Section 13000) of Division 8, shall be determined after the deduction of the expenses so paid.

Comment. Section 2631 is amended to authorize payment of attorney's fees and other reasonable expenses of the guardian or conservator. The other changes in Section 2631 are technical.
